

| Applicant name | Amount requested | Brief Project Description |
|------------------------------------|------------------|---|
| North Lands Creative | £ 9,995.00 | North Lands Creative and Abate Zanetti wish to develop stronger connections between the glass studios and our associate artists from Murano and Scotland. This flagship project will develop individuals and organisations both artistically and organisationally to safeguard studio glass sustainability by building new partnerships and researching the possibilities of a shared spirit of collaboration. |
| Paragon Music | £ 9,624.00 | Inclusive Performing Artists training collaboration between Paragon Music and Fattoria Vittadini, involving knowledge exchange and the development of future inclusive practice in Scotland and Italy. Disabled and non-disabled leading performance artists, Chiara Bersani and Alex McCabe, will lead the training and initiate a new youth inclusive performing arts movement. |
| Rosana Cade and Ivor MacAskill | £ 6,146.00 | A Queer Performance Practice Exchange between Glasgow and Hamburg led by Rosana Cade and Ivor MacAskill in conjunction with Kampnagel and the Queer B-Cademy Festival: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Creating new connections between artists and programmers in each city; and • Significantly strengthening support for Cade and MacAskill's practice in Germany and Europe. |
| Highlight Arts | £ 5,205.28 | We are applying for strategic partnership development funds for 2019, to support the delivery and aims of our long-term project Highlight Arctic. We are looking for travel funds to attend the 3-day Arctic Arts Summit in Rovaniemi in June, and the 6-day Nuuk Nordic Culture Festival in Greenland in October. |
| Take Me Somewhere Festival Limited | £ 8,095.00 | A programme of activity for a delegation of artists and programmers from Italy, France and Germany to meet with the Take Me Somewhere Festival team and our Artist Constellation. Taking the delegation on a journey through the festival showcasing international and Scottish work alongside a programme of tailored activities. |
| Luminate | £ 7,310.00 | Exchange visits between delegations organised by Luminate, Scotland's creative ageing organisation, and Kubia, the Centre of Competence for Creative Ageing and Inclusive Arts in North-Rhine Westphalia, to share practice between Scotland and Germany, and explore possibilities for future collaboration. |
| Luke Pell | £ 9,990.00 | Artist Luke Pell will convene a group of peers from Scotland, Germany & Norway to interrogate artist development, presentation and producing models for independent dance makers whose practices speak to intersectionality, interdisciplinarity and 'the outlier.' This pilot will enhance and expand collaborative opportunities for those working outside traditional infrastructures. |
| Cove Park | £ 10,000.00 | A new series of Cove Park residencies for artists based in EU countries. This programme will be delivered in parallel with residencies hosted by EU partner organisations for artists based in Scotland and will support makers and designers, filmmakers, performing artists and musicians, literary translators, writers and visual artists. |
| Edinburgh Jazz & Blues Festival | £ 8,900.00 | EJBF wants to expand its European connections to include new partners from Italy and has identified a strategic partner with whom to establish a long-term relationship: Fondazione Piemonte dal Vivo, a partner organisation of the Piedmont Region in Italy, whose main purpose is to create a circuit for live performances across Piedmont. This strategic partnership will enable us to create and build international opportunities for Scottish musicians, fostering international ambition and excellence in Scotland through collaborations and networks. Developing our relationship with such a key player from Italy will also enable us to promote exciting and innovative work of the highest quality from established and emerging artists from Scotland whilst providing international experiences and nurturing an international market for these musicians. |
| Wide Events | £ 8,760.00 | The project will extend invitations to representatives from European music festivals to explore the feasibility of each guest curating a stage at future Wide Days events. Its directors will also attend partner events to determine opportunities for Scottish musicians and industry practitioners to showcase and/or collaborate with their peers in the EU. |
| Feral Arts | £ 7,560.00 | Subsidy is being sought for an 'outdoor arts' focussed artistic exchange and residency project between Feral (Glasgow, Scotland), Oceanallover (Dumfries & Galloway, Scotland), Spoffin Festival Amersfoort, Netherlands) and Misiconi (Rotterdam, Netherlands). The residency will have a particular focus on inclusive/integrated practice, international models for large scale participatory outdoor performance and sharing knowledge on frameworks for site specific work in Europe. |
| Starcatchers | £ 10,000.00 | Starcatchers is applying for support towards the research and development of a new collaborative project with partners from Spain, France and Norway which would to interrogate current practice and advance future development in the field of theatre and performance for babies. |

| | | |
|-------------------------|------------|--|
| Edinburgh Printmakers | £ 8,520.00 | This project would develop and establish partnerships in Europe for "In From the Margins":- a transnational cooperation project between printmakers in Scotland, Greece, Ireland and other European nations to establish "Studios of Sanctuary" offering residencies to refugee and asylum seeking artists, and artists whose lives have been shaped by migration. |
| Project Ability | £ 9,227.00 | Project Ability invites learning disabled artists and their support studios from Spain and Germany to our studio in Glasgow to work, exchange and network over three days to establish a progressive strategy for the future. |
| Deveron Projects | £ 9,000.00 | Partnerlook! is an intercultural research programme between Deveron Projects/Huntly/Aberdeenshire and 'landmade' in Strodehne/rural Havelland/Germany – facilitated through residency exchange. Based on the threshold between art/craft, this multi-year participatory exchange aims to develop new perspectives on behavioural patterns for the rural context in multiple European settings. |
| Street Level Photoworks | £ 9,711.00 | Two residencies catalysing a triangular link between remote Northern sites in Finland, Ireland and Scotland, plus knowledge exchange to develop existing and new partnerships with agencies in Germany, tapping into international networks, increasing visibility of new work and ideas to enrich practices and research around Photography. |